APPLICANT'S COMMENTS ON EXAMINER'S STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Claims 9-11 have been allowed in this case. The Statement of Reasons for Allowance (and possibly other statements) indicates that the prior art fails to teach some of the features recited in independent claim 9. The applicants agree with these statements to the extent that they are in agreement with the language of the individual allowed claims.

Furthermore, it is a well known tenet of patent law that patent claims are read as a whole, rather than phrase by phrase or element by element. Therefore, the scope of the allowed claims is not necessarily limited only to the claim features mentioned in the statements, but rather, to the language of the claims themselves, in their entirety.

Finally, there are several dependent claims that depend directly from the allowed independent claim. Each of the allowed claims includes particular features and particular claim language, and therefore each has a scope different from the others allowed in this case.
